November 4, 12:23 am – Full Moon

The November 4th Full Moon in the earth sign of Taurus is going to be showering all of us with love and abundance, making it one of the most magical Moons of 2017. November is already a power month seeing as it holds the vibration of 11, and this Full Moon is the perfect way to kick start all of this wonderful energy.

11 is a sacred number in numerology as it represents divinity, rebirth and higher consciousness. It is also the number associated with angels. This vibration will be with all of us throughout the month of November, making it the perfect time to turn our dreams into goals and our goals into actions. Couple this 11 energy with the Taurus Full Moon and the first part of November is going to be glittering with an abundance of opportunities for money, success and romance.

Since the October 19th New Moon, we have all been guided to start planting seeds and making wishes. This was also seen with the rare alignment of Jupiter and the Sun which occurred on October 26th as well. Whatever seeds you have been tending to during this time, wherever you have been putting your energy, you are now really going to be able to reap all of the rewards.

This Full Moon will guide you. All you need to do is begin taking steps forward in the direction of your choosing. If you have been looking for love, or looking to open your heart after a heartbreak, this Full Moon energy is also going to be supporting you. Put yourself out there, go on a date, or do a heart chakra clearing. Love will be in the air on this Full Moon, so use it to your advantage! It is also the perfect time to have a deep and meaningful conversation with a loved one, and to share your true thoughts and feelings.

The Taurus Full Moon is also going to be delivering waves of abundance and prosperity, so take advantage of this energy too by organizing your finances, taking on new projects at work, or looking for ways to raise your income. If you have a business idea you are looking to get off the ground, this Full Moon will also be supporting you, so make a plan and start taking action.

The energy of this Full Moon will be handed to all of us on a silver platter, but we actually have to take action to feel and see this energy in operation for ourselves. The Universe is always offering us goodies to use, but a lot of the time we fail to see them, or are so concerned with looking for something else that we lose sight of what is really in front of us!

From the beginning of the year, we have all been beckoned to start a new chapter. We have all been called upon in different ways to break free of old patterns and start something new. Transformation like this can be extremely challenging, and perhaps many of you are feeling zapped and depleted at this point in the year. This Full Moon comes as a reminder that the Universe is on your side, and that it is there to offer you exactly what you need. This Full Moon is so bountiful and wonderful, that it is really going to help you regain a lot of your strength and inner knowing as you start making your way through this new chapter in your life. Again, to feel this energy you have to act. So think about what direction you want to go in, think about what you want in your life, and then start taking steps to make it happen.

Because we are dealing with Full Moon energy, there may be things that we need to release as well. For this Full Moon, we are going to be called to release all the self-imposed blocks that we have been putting on ourselves. We are going to be called to release all of the self-sabotaging thoughts, patterns and ideas that we have been carrying around. This Full Moon comes as a reminder that the only person standing in your way is You. This Full Moon reminds us that the world is on your side, you just need to get out of your own way and start living the life that you want without making excuses. Excuses are really just fears, and when you can acknowledge this and address the fear, it allows you to push past it. Fear is a natural and a normal part of the human condition, but we have to rise up and we have to believe in ourselves more than our fear.

Use the energy of the November Full Moon to rise up and shed all the fears that hold you back from living the life you want. Use this energy to push past any boundaries or barriers that you have created so you can start making steps forward. This Full Moon favors slow, methodical steps that are aligned with your highest intention. Work with this energy, and very soon you will start seeing tangible, bountiful and abundant results.

Come from below and from above;
Entities loving who wish me well,
Come to this circle when I sound the bell. "

Ring a bell three times and welcome the ancestors' spirits. Afterwards, ring the bell seven times to send them back through the portal so you can open your circle.
